ANECDOTE OF COMMOPORE SLOAT. The New York Journal of Commerce relates the following anecdote of this officer:-conspicuous a page in our naval history, is conspicuous a page in our naval history, is nov 7 62 corner Fairfax and Prince streets. now in this city, and visited the Brooklyn Navy Yard yesterday. He is a very quiet, plain-looking person, and does not seem more than fifty years old, although he cannot be less than 80, having entered the service in 1800. Commodore Stoat's celebrity, sprung which he repaired from Mazatlan to Califorsonian Composition Powder—just manufactured wis in 1846 on learning that Gen. Taylor had and for sale by JAS. ENTWISLE, Jr., nia in 1846, on learning that Gen. Taylor had and for sale by commenced fighting at Point Isabel. The frigate Savannah, flag-ship of Commodore Sloat, and the British line of battle ship Collingwood, bearing the broad flag of Admiral Seymour, were lying in Mazatlan when Sloat accidentally learned, at a private dinner given by a gentleman on shore, that hostilities had begun in Mexico. Without communicating his intentions to any one, the fer sale by Yankee Commodore quietly went on board the Savannah, and ordered anchor to be got up as noiselessly as possible. At midnight, unobserved by even the vigilant lookouts on the English liner, the American frigate was outward bound: a fact which Admiral Seymour did not learn until next morning. Having discovered it, however, his ship was put to sea in the greatest haste, as he hoped to outsail the Savannah, whose destination he well knew was Monterey, Cal.,-a harbor, the nationality of which at that time was not very definitely settled. But the Savannah was too fast for the Collingwood, and arrived at Monterey fifteen days before that vessel.

Commodore Sloat hoisted the stars and stripes on reaching the city, and when Admiral Seymour came in, most politely tendered him the hospitalities of the port, which were received with as good a grace as the Briton could exhibit under the peculiar circumstances of the case. Subsequently the Admiral requested permission from Commodore Sloat to cut some spars on shore, a favor that was most graciously granted. Commodore Sloat is now "on the retired list," and has 17 years and 5 months active sea service credited to him on the Naval Register.

PLAYING RICHARD III. TO AN AUDIENCE OF ONE .- Mr. Foster, the Manager of a Theatrical Company playing at Bucyrus, Ohio, was sitting in a hotel, when a stranger, with a bill of the evening play in his hand, entered the room, and approaching Mr. Foster asked him if he was the Manager of the Theatre.— Being answered in the affirmative, he asked Mr. Foster what sum would induce his company to play Richard 111, for him that aftermoon, as he was compelled to leave town and could not be present in the evening. Mr. Foster, supposing that the stranger was jesting, replied twenty-five dollars, and being asked what he would add the Rough Diamond for, he replied ten dollars. The stranger forthwith counted out the money, and the company, on being consulted, agreed to grant the stranger's request. The stranger do do Solar Oil do do Solar Oil do do Lard Oil, in casks or bils. ter than 2 o'clock, and we now let the Bu-cyrus Journal tell the rest. "Two o'clock TEROSENE AND COAL OIL.—The sub cyrus Journal tell the rest. "Two o'clock came, and the solitary audience assembled. K scribers have just received a full supply of the Roston and New York Keroseno, also Coal his feet upon the back of the seat in front of him, waited patiently for the performance to begin. The bell rang, up went the curtain, and the play commenced. Never did actors do better. They all exerted themselves to give their patron as entertainment fully give their patron an entertainment fully ed. The stranger applauded vigorously at different points, and at the close of the play worth the price paid for it, and they succeedcalled Mr. Fannin before the curtain who responded in a neat little speech. A dance and song followed, after which the farce of the Rough Diamond was played. The audience laughed, reared and applauded, and, at the close of the first piece, called out the lead-

It is usual at the different gaming tables on the Continent, in case of a person having lost considerable sums and literally being left with nothing, for the bank to give sufficient money to enable the unfortunate loser to leave. A Prussian, the other day, at Wiesbaden, played his last florin away. The proof of the bank to give sufficient with the bank to give suff with nothing, for the bank to give sufficient bank gave him forty florins to leave with .-With that he went to Nanheim, a small place famous for its baths but yet in its infancy .-There he risked what remained of his forty florins, and, with them, succeeded in breaking the bank, and coming away the winner of seven thousand five hundred pounds .--He, in the most honest, upright manner, returned to Wiesbaden and paid back to the bank the forty florins it so generously

In a speech at Liverpool recently, Mr. Gladstone said, "Dr Johnson, I think, says that whatever induces a man to live more in the future and less in the present, exalts him in the scale of creation. If that be so, (and I am inclined to believe it is so,) the position of the railway shareholder must be an

sep 22-41y SOUTHERN PROTECTION INSURANCE COMPANY, ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA. CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS,

AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING.
The Charter of this Company offers more lavorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premius in each, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the sured saves nearly one-half of the amount charges by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Polici-against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thensand dollars have been paid for losses. Haven increased our business during the past year, we grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upor the Company thus far, and for its flattering propects of future usefulness. The Directors have and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for the Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may be determined by three disjuterested arbitrators of the chosen by the insured and the Company. DIRECTORS: T. B. Robertson, James T. Close, Thomas T. Hill, Edward Sangster, Dr. R. H. Stabler, W. D. Massey, R. H. Carter, Christopher Neale, P. D. Lipscomb, Wm. Wright. W. M. Turner, A. R. Blakey, S. T. Stuart.
